Students Thrive When Families are Involved

High school is partly about growing independence in your teen, but there are so many ways to still be involved in your teen's school to show your support.

Attend:

- games and matches
- resource and curriculum nights, meet teachers and staff
- school plays and musical concerts
- Arts Quake and Multicultural Night and other student celebrations

Volunteer:

- concession stand
- staff appreciation
- PTSA board
- PTSA Auction
- field trips

Ask and listen:

- about their school day
- about their friends
- about their interests
- about their goals

The Franklin PTSA is here to connect you to opportunities to be involved so all of our students will thrive at Franklin.

Show your Quaker Pride! Join/renew the Franklin PTSA today.
